III. Director's Update

Dr. Michael Huerta gave the Director's update to the LSTRC. Dr. Huerta briefed the committee on several leadership transitions, including the retirement of the former NLM Director, Dr. Patricia Flatley Brennan, and the selection of the new NLM Scientific Director, Dr. Richard H. Scheuermann. He covered Dr. Scheuermann's plan for the next steps of the NLM intramural program. Dr. Huerta also summarized the current leadership positions and noted that a very high proportion are being filled with individuals in "acting" roles. Dr. Huerta gave an update on internal NLM news, including initiatives related to the Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey (FEVS) and the work of the Summer Sprint working groups, which are Federal staff tasked with creating early action strategies for addressing important concerns. Dr. Huerta gave updates about several NLM resources, including ClinicalTrials.gov, NLM's clinical study registry that is making efforts to modernize its user experience and platform, and AccessGUDID, a Global Unique Device Identification Database that contains key device identification information submitted to the FDA about medical devices. He noted that NLM recently celebrated the 25th anniversary of MedlinePlus and Circulating Now's 10th anniversary, and ended with NLM budget updates. Dr. Huerta briefed the committee on the recent history of the NLM and NIH budgets, which have generally increased, as compared to the expectation for the upcoming year in which no increase is anticipated. He summarized how NLM plans to continue operating effectively with these budget constraints.
